F4	Statement of capital (Voting rights)
Class of share	A Ordinary Shares of €0.07
Voting rights	is the vote of the person whose name is listed before the other voters on the register for the share Article 70 of the Articles of Association applies where a court or official claiming jurisdiction to protect people who are unable to manage their own affairs has made an order about the shareholder. The person appointed to act for that shareholder can vote for him. He can also exercise any other rights of the shareholder relating to meetings. This includes appointing a proxy, voting on a show of hands and voting on a poll. Before the representative does so however, such evidence of his authority as the board requires must be received by the Company not later than the latest time at which proxy forms must be received to be valid for use at the relevant meeting or on the holding of the relevant poll. Unless the board decides otherwise, a shareholder cannot attend or vote shares at any general meeting of the company or upon a poll or exercise any other right conferred by membership in relation to general meetings or polls if he has not paid all amounts relating to those shares which are due at the time of the meeting. If <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (i) any objection to the right of any person to vote is made, (ii) any votes have been counted which ought not to have been counted or which might have been rejected, or (iii) any votes are not counted which ought to have been counted, the objection or error must be raised or pointed out at the meeting (or the adjourned meeting) or poll at which the vote objected to is cast or at which the error occurs. Any objection or error must be raised with or pointed out to the chairman of the meeting. His decision is final. If a vote is allowed at a meeting or poll, it is valid for all purposes and if a vote is not counted at a meeting or poll, this will not affect the decision of the meeting or poll.
